Ann Mazur Memorial Scholarship Fund

This scholarship was created to annually award a graduating senior at Penn Cambria School District. Ann Mazur lived a life of strife, striving, and success. From birth on August 30, 1917, until her death on December 25, 2013, she dealt with illness and poverty, overcoming both to achieve her goals. Despite having pneumonia shortly after birth to living with the after-effects of rheumatic fever in midlife, she persevered. Despite her financial and health struggles, she achieved success in business. She traveled extensively, from Greenland to Tierra del Fuego and around the world, the latter a year-long trip across the U.S., Pacific Islands, Asia, India, Africa, and Europe. She valued education, excelled, and found joy in lifelong learning.
